Our Guest from Germany

We have had several local young students who have had the privilege and opportunity of their lives in being accepted into European families where they lived as a valued member for one year of their high school lives. All of them have come back with an experience that they will never forget and most have returned with a second family.

We are privileged to have such a guest in Mattapoisett from the opposite side of the Atlantic. Monika Fenger is one of the newest residents of town and a most attractive addition. She comes from the city of Osnabruck, West Germany. She is tall, blond, with an easy smile, a sense of humor and she looks like any attractive girl next door. Only her very slight accent betrays the fact that, until a very short while ago, the United States was just a country on the globe and Mattapoisett was a place too small to be found there.

She did find it through correspondence with the Horace Darrahs of North Street, her adopted American family. They told her about Mattapoisett and sent her road maps of Massachusetts. In this way, she was prepared to make the transition so that the town did not come as a strange place. There are great differences though, she discovered Osnabruck is a city of 160,000 people so Mattapoisett is small in comparison but she has enjoyed her new surroundings. She says that people have been very friendly and very kind to her. She was really amazed at all the wooden homes. In spite of the vast German forests, wood is in short supply there, so it is almost never used for building homes. Brick and stone are used for this purpose. So, when Monika saw all the wooden homes of Mattapoisett, she was not only surprised but a little uneasy wondering how all these inflamable houses managed to survive for long.

Monika is the daughter of Helmut W. and Agnes A. Fenger of Osnabruck, and she has a two year old brother, Thomas, and two sisters, Ursula 14, and Elizabeth 10. Her father saw the United States as a World War II prisoner of war. He was quartered in Texas and also near the Canadian border. The country made an impression on him so he greatly desired that his daughter have the opportunity to see this country. Through the exchange student program of the American Field Service, she is now having that experience.

Her trip started from Amsterdam, Holland

She and the other students were on the ship 10 days where they received indoctrination about the United States. Engine trouble on the ship forced a change of transportation. She finally was flown across the Atlantic to land in New York. Her stay there was so brief and even her view of the city so fleeting that she really received no impression of New York City. She hopes that the return trip will be by boat, both for the enjoyment of an ocean voyage and in order to practice German so that she can converse with the people at home.

She arrived in town during the latter part of this wet Summer but in time to enjoy some swimming and sailing.

Monika finds Old Rochester quite different from her former school. In Germany, her school was all girl since most of the schools there are either all male or all female. At home, the school day was shorter from 8 to 1 and was 6 days a week. Everyone went home to dinner for German people enjoy their big meal at midday. She said that usually the German class would remain in one room and the teachers would change rooms to instruct in their subjects. The subject matter here, she thinks, would be easier than at home except for her problems with English. These difficulties must be almost over since she appears very fluent. Monika studied English for 6 years in school but never practiced it as extensively as now since here she must use it at all times. She would like to be a teacher when she completes her education.

She says that the popular music of today is as well known and as popular in Germany as it is here although in some cases it has German lyrics. She prefers the lyrics in English. Mini skirts are very much shorter in Germany. Long hair on males is longer in many cases. Soccer is the big sport in Monika's country and the struggles on the football field have been puzzling. Her first game promoted her question, "Why do the players spend so much time on the floor?"

Television is much different here, she finds. The commercials are very handy for a cookie break. At home, she said, the commercials are all run in one bunch, then the program is run without interruption. The German programs are much more educational with Shakespearean plays and classical music and public information programs on current events, she said.

When questioned, she said the German people are unhappy about the U. S. role in Viet Nam. They are not certain of the aims or the effect if the U. S. was not involved but they wish that the war could be concluded in some reasonable fashion. Also, in answer to a question, she said that the German people, especially the older people, hope for a reunited Germany because they remember how it was. She herself has never known anything but a separate West Germany and East Germany.

Monika also answered that the German people think of this country as a rich country and she thinks that, in spite of the prosperity of West Germany, people here live relatively better. She said that German people do much more walking than their U. S. counterparts. She thinks, though, that compared to other countires of Europe, the German people are well off.

The great differences in our foods are often a problem and some foods may remain a mystery. Scallops, she has tried, but without enthusiasm. Clams she has decided to leave alone. Lobster interested her until she inspected that underside and promptly lost interest. With these exceptions, she tries most of the new foods and may yet develop Yankee taste.

She said that she misses old buildings, that Mattapoisett seems so new. She explained that to her 1000 years is old. The old stone churches of Osnabruck are that ancient.

Monika is happy in town and the happiness is echoed by Mr. and Mrs. Darrah and their daughter, Joan, a junior at Old Rochester. A son, William, is away at college. They are all delighted to have Monika as a member of the family.

The 14,000 semi-finalists appointed throughout the nation have advanced to the second step in the competition for about 2,900 Merit Scholarships, valued at more than $8 million, to be awarded in 1968.

Semi-finalists scored the highest in each state on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given last February. They constitute less than one per cent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the nation.

Letters of Commendation honoring them for their high performance on the 1967 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test have been awarded to three students at Old Rochester Regional High School. Principal Donald N. Gavin has announced those named commended students are Deborah A. Hartley, Liz-

Marion to Use Matt. Schools?

LETTER REGARDING USE OF SCHOOLROOMS

The following letter has been sent to Town Council Leonard Perry by Mattapoisett Selectmen because of reports that have been circulating regarding contemplated use of Mattapoisett owned school classrooms:

"There is, and has been, a great deal of discussion among the citizens of Mattapoisett concerning reports that the Old Rochester School Committee and the Mattapoisett School Committee, at their meetings, are considering the possibility of moving certain classes from the Town of Marion to the facilities in the Town of Mattapoisett.

"There has also been further discussion in relation to the relocation of the 7th grade classes now being held at Old Rochester Regional High School, to the existing facilities in the Town of Mattapoisett. This is causing a great deal of disturbance.

In order to clarify the situation and to keep the citizens of Mattapoisett informed as to what is contemplated for the present facilities which Mattapoisett has, the Board

Zoning Clarifications

The original copy of the proposed Zoning By-Law and Map for Mattapoisett as furnished to and published in the Presto Press issue of October 4, 1967, contained some minor inaccuracies. The symbol of the proposed Village Residence Zone is set forth in the proposed Zoning By-Law as "R10" in Section V, sub-section C and Section VI, sub-section B, and on the Map under the heading "KEY TO ZONE". On the face of the map itself in the Village Residence Zone the symbol "VR10" appears. These two symbols mean the same thing and are to be used interchangeably. Both are symbols for the Village Residence Zone.

And in Section IV, sub-section B, in place of "District Designation dated" there should be a blank space, where the definite name and date of the Map will be inserted in the proposed by-law to be presented to the Special Town Meeting. In Section VI, sub-section B, note, there should be a blank space at the end of the sentence instead of the words, "as revised March 30, 1966", so that the proper date can be filled in for the Special Town Meeting.

There will be a preliminary public meeting to discuss the proposed Mattapoisett Zoning By-Law and Map at the Town Hall at 8:00 P.M. on Monday, October 16, 1967. It is hoped that as many as possible who are interested in zoning for Mattapoisett will attend.

The Zoning Question

Editorial

Like many other people in town, I consider encroachment upon the rights of the individual, particularly in regard to his property, as an evil. However, there comes a time when individual rights have to be placed under regulation in order to provide protection to that property. As more people are attracted to a given area, as travel becomes swift, fences have to be erected against the exploiters. It is now possible to reach Providence in a little over half an hour from the Coggeshall Street bridge. Soon, Mattapoisett will be a suburb of Providence. Our time is running out.

Two years ago, we turned down a Zoning proposition but, in doing so, the people of the town indicated an interest and a responsibility by appointing a group to study the town and develop a plan specifically designed for it. A new plan is now ready for consideration. This new plan is not perfect and no plan ever devised by any committee ever will be. It is a series of compromises as all collective rules must be. The Zoning Board has done its best and now is ready to hear from the citizens of the town. If there are objections, revisions that should be considered, ideas that should be incorporated, the time is now. The preliminary hearings on the zoning proposal are the places to bring them out in person or in writing to the Zoning Board. If this is done, then the Zoning Board will have an opportunity to make revision, if they consider revision necessary, before the proposal is presented to the town for a vote. Not only is this group willing to consider the ideas of the townspeople but they are anxious to do so. The first informal hearing on the zoning plan will be held on October 16 at the Mattapoisett Town Hall at 8 P.M. This will be followed by an official hearing on the following Monday, Oc-

Hallowe'en Festivities Planned

HALLOWEEN PARADE AND DANCE

A Halloween Parade in Mattapoisett will be held Tuesday, October 31st, starting at 6:30 P.M. in front of the PX on Church Street, sponsored by the Police Department.

Following the parade, a party will be held at the Center School for the younger children, and a dance for the teenagers at a place to be announced.

Two tricycles and four bicycles will be awarded for the most original costumes. There also will be a Polaroid camera given as a door prize at the teenage dance.

Donations to assist in making this a successful event are greatly needed and will be most sincerely appreciated. Any donation may be sent to the Police Station, Church Street.

Grange Plans Supper

GRANGE MEETING

The bi-monthly meeting of the Mattapoisett Grange was held last Thursday night with the worthy master, Susan Bence, presiding.

The charter was draped in a memorial service for Mrs. Emma Atkinson by the worthy chaplain, Mrs. Rebecca Downing. She was assisted by Mrs. Olive Gifford as Ceres and assistant stewards, Corrine Lawrence and Robert Ouellette, with spiritual music by Walter Caswell.

A report was given by Otto Kellish on the apple crop in Massachusetts. Mrs. Kellish reported on her Grange work for the shut-in members.

Mrs. Ruby Barber, Home and Community chairman, reported on her afternoon whist party. She also announced a meeting of her committee and for all interested members who would like to assist her in her community work this year. The meeting will be this Thursday, October 12th, at 6 P.M. starting with a covered dish supper. Each one is to bring a covered dish and their own place settings, plus helpful ideas for Grange Home and Community work.

Worthy master Bence appointed a commit-

G. Smith Paintings on Exhibit

The paintings of George W.H. Smith, Jr. of Mattapoisett will be on display at the Cecil Clark Davis gallery, Marion Art Center, during the month of October. Mr. Smith earned his A.B. from Harvard University in 1941 where he studied theory of design. He took further education at Rhode Island School of Design and also worked at the Charles Woodbury studio in Ogunquit, Maine where he did marine landscape painting. A summer session at the Fogg Museum and a four year Curator course are also to his credit.

Perhaps the most impressive accomplishment in Mr. Smith's biographical data is a competition for the design of the Communion rail at the high altar in the Washington National Cathedral which he won. He has exhibited his work at the Providence Art Club and the Suffolk County Art Association. And now the Marion Art Center is pleased to present his work to the public. Gallery hours: 12 to 4:00 P.M. Tuesday through Saturday. Members of the Art Center attended the opening on Friday, October 6th, from 5:00 to 7:00 P.M.

Special additive in today's Shell Heating Oil helps give more warmth per gallon, top heating performance

There's a new additive in today's Shell Heating Oil. Called FOA-5X, this Shell product works round the clock to protect your fuel system-from storage tank to burner head. FOA-5X helps reduce build up of heat-robbing deposits that can collect in critical areas of your burner. It lets Shell Heating Oil burn in a radiant, even flame. It helps reduce service calls and expense. The result: more warmth per gallon of fuel-top performance at minimum cost. Before you buy your next gallon of heating oil, call us. We will give you complete details about Shell Heating Oil with FOA-5X and about our service.

Women Voters' Fund Drive

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS' FINANCE DRIVE

Today begins the Marion League of Women Voters' Finance Drive and will continue until October 22. This year the league needs $540. and is calling on friends of the league to assist them in reaching their goal. As with any organization the total budget voted at the annual meeting was larger and this reflects a healthy state.

The Marion League of Women Voters does not conduct cake sales, run raffles or the many other methods used to raise money. Budget needs are met through membership dues and contributions from league members and non-members who back their faith in the league with donations.

Heading the Finance Drive are Mrs. John R. Minter and Mrs. Reginald Pollard. The league is a non-partisan organization and it takes action in support of, or in opposition to, selected governmental issues. It does not support or oppose candidates or political parties.

League members are now studying county government, state fiscal police and corrections. The goal of the league is to encourage good citizenship by encouraging all voters to know what is going on, not only on the local and state level, but also on the national level and to assure that the voters will express their views through their votes.
